MIDWEEK

AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS | SUMMER 2018

Join us at First Presbyterian Church this summer on Wednesday nights for special programming for Adults, Youth, and Children.

FOR EVERYONE

Family Night Dinner - beginning at 5:00 p.m.; served until 6:15 p.m.

Join us for a special meal on June 13, prepared by our new Chef/Hostess, Elizabeth Bush.

FOR ADULTS

First Pres Forum (FPF) is a new summer teaching series on Wednesday nights in Miller Hall at 6:30 p.m. that seeks to ground the sometimes lofty theological topics in an easy, accessible, and applicable way for our late-modern, busy lives. Formerly a well-loved teaching series exclusively for Young Adults at First Pres, FPF is now for all adults and the highlight of our Midweek program for adults this summer. Come join with our whole church family as we take six weeks to look at the mystery of Union with Christ. What does this mystery, which is the heart of our salvation, mean for our identity, our guilt, our hopes, our desires, and our loves?

This summer's FPF series will be led by our new Minister of Young Adults & College, Cory Brock, and David Strain.

FOR CHILDREN

This summer's program for children will aim to teach them to walk wisely with God, using the instructions of Proverbs. Walking with the Wise will connect the moral truths of Proverbs to the life and teachings of Jesus, from whom true wisdom comes. A companion book to our curriculum, entitled Wise Up by Marty Machoswski, is available in the bookstore. Working through this family devotional at home is a great way to partner with the church in teaching these important truths to our young ones. The summer program will meet at 6:30 on Wednesday evenings, and all children currently in the three-year-old Sunday school up to the fifth grade Sunday school are invited to attend.

Nursery is provided for children age three and younger from 5:00 p.m. until 7:30 p.m.

FOR YOUTH

During the summer, Junior High takes a break from D Groups. With so many new rising seventh graders joining us, we want to take the time during the summer to make sure everyone gets to know each other and make the Youth House a comfortable and welcoming place. The Summer Schedule below lists a few Wednesday evenings to be spent off site. Otherwise we will follow our normal schedule:

Junior High Wednesday Night Schedule:

5:30 p.m. Open Youth House
6:00 p.m. Pizza ($3)
6:30 p.m. Large-Group Teaching
7:30 p.m. Depart

Youth Summer Schedule:

June 27: Junior High Large Group

A small group for senior high students, all grades and genders, led by Ann Lowrey Forster, Hunter Nicholson, and Nathan Oakley, will continue to meet at the church on Wednesday evenings throughout the summer at 6:30 in Y201.
