SUPPORT GROUP

FPC has started a fellowship group for folks who have family/friends who struggle with addiction/alcoholism. This group is open to anyone who wants help as he or she bears the burden of a loved one who struggles with addiction. You need to know that there are folks sitting around you in worship who are struggling with this same burden – and there is something strangely helpful about getting together with fellow pilgrims along the way who share your struggle. If you are interested, call or email Shannon Craft at (601) 326-9243 or shannonc@fpcjackson.org to find out when and where this monthly meeting will take place. Or you may text (601) 941-7518 and just ask when the friends of addicts meeting is – this info will be kept completely confidential.
