Pastor's Perspective

YOUNG ADULTS UPDATE

by Cory Brock

Let me update you on two big happenings in the world of the young adults at FPC. First, on January 24-25, nineteen young adults along with Malcolm Saxon and Steve Brock went to Greenwood to serve on a mercy ministry trip at Delta Streets Academy for the second year in a row. Delta Streets was started under the vision and leadership of T-Mac Howard. T-Mac, his wife Megan, and their three boys are members at Westminster PCA in Greenwood.

In 2012, Delta Streets opened as a full-time school with fourteen boys in seventh and eighth grade and met on the fourth floor of First Baptist Greenwood after existing as an after-school program for a few years prior. Today, Delta Streets has its own property in downtown Greenwood and has about 80 boys enrolled. They are MAIS accredited, compete in IA MAIS sports, and have open, year-long enrollment for any boy coming from an at-risk neighborhood. They have no tuition and exist entirely on the support of Christians and other philanthropists throughout the U.S. The mission at DSA is beautiful: "Delta Streets Academy equips young men by providing Christ-centered, disciplined education."

We went to help them with an important project. They have plans now to build an elementary school and gymnasium out of an old Canon dealership in Greenwood. We had two days of hard work, clearing out thousands of pounds of lumber and metal, hauling off old goods to other charitable organizations, and making ready the space for construction. It was a sweet time of hard work, fellowship with old friends and new, and doing a small part to be on board with the mission of DSA. Mercy ministry is often the fastest vehicle to an opportunity to speak the words of the Gospel into the lives of people who have deep, felt needs. And this trip reminded all of us that there is much space for giving ourselves in deed ministry. Check out DSA here: www.deltastreetacademy.org/our-history. Pray for them.

Second, on Feb. 14-16, forty-five young adults went to Twin Lakes for our second annual retreat weekend. Our retreats are a meeting place between focused reflection on a domain of the Christian life and the combo of rest and play. This year's emphasis was on navigating relationships in all the aspects of life: honoring parents, true friendship, practical principles of healthy marriage, respecting employers, relating to non-Christians, and understanding relationships in materially poor communities. On top of worship and teaching, we just spent good time together, eating, praying, walking in the woods, reflecting on our year, and tossing the frisbee.

These are both two of our more important events throughout the year and we give thanks that both were places that many found time to commune with the living God and renew their faith in Christ.

The Christian and Technology
March 18 - April 29
Led by John Fesko
Miller Hall

We live our lives and use technology on a daily basis, but in what ways is technology shaping and changing us? Are we unknowingly being conformed to the patterns of this world rather than being transformed by the renewing of our minds (Rom. 12:1-2)? This series encourages us to take a careful look at the way that we use technology to ensure that we do so deliberately, thoughtfully, and carefully. Each week we will consider a different technology, including: screens, social media, cars, the book, virtual reality, and the internet.

Dr. Fesko has taught at RTS Atlanta since 2000 while he served as a pastor in Northwest Atlanta and now as Professor of Systematic and Historical Theology at RTS Jackson.

Support Group

If you are struggling with alcohol or other chemical dependence and would like to get together with people who share the same struggles, we have a small and very safe group that meets regularly for just that purpose. This discreet, weekly meeting is one of friendship, encouragement, and biblical reflection. Personal anonymity is very important at this meeting. For more information, please call or text 601-260-1636. Also, twice each month a group of those who have loved ones who struggle with addiction/alcoholism meet for a time of mutual encouragement and Christ-centered counsel. Anonymity is required. For more information concerning the place and time of these meetings, call or text 601-260-0388.
